

Grant Round 1, 2018

'Out of round' applications can also be made in extenuating circumstances using this application form and submitting it, along with the project description and budget justification, to the Gender Institute Convenor Professor Margaret Jolly and the Gender Institute Administrator

You can direct any questions about this form or the application process to the Gender Institute Administrator

Please familiarise yourself with GI funding guidelines before filling out his form.

Applicant Details ('lead' applicant)

College:

Name (lead applicant):

Email:

Phone:

Mobile:

Additional Contacts:

Name:

Phone:

Name:

Phone:

Proposal Title:

Proposal description* (brief):

Full project description must be uploaded as part of the application details document*

Category / categories (check all that apply):

- Workshop for Postgraduate Students
- Writing Workshops for Early Career Researchers
- Signature events for subsequent year
- Distinguished lecture and seminar by a renowned scholar
- Gender Equity research and innovative initiatives within ANU
- Seed funding for cross-disciplinary collaborative research aligned with the aims of the Gender Institute
- Workshop, conference or symposium on gender and/or sexuality

Expected Timeline:

Participants

Expected number of participants:

Academic level aimed at (e.g., Undergraduate, Post-graduate, ECR, Senior Researchers):

Funding*

Total amount requested:

Full details must be provided separately as part of the supporting documentation and need to include:*

- A full budget breakdown (including funds received/requested from elsewhere)
- A budget justification (max. 1 page)

Endorsement of the College Dean/Divisional Director or Supervisor

ANU College Dean/Divisional Director/Supervisor

Name:

Signature:

Date:

Please note these requirements and check the boxes to confirm:

- The event/project will explicitly acknowledge GI support in all publicity/media coverage
- The Gender Institute banner will be displayed at any associated events
- The initiative will be as inclusive of a range of ANU academics or GI nodes as possible
- Associated events will provide opportunities to invite new members to join the GI newsletter
- The recipient will provide account details for the transfer of funds via the R-ledger
- The agreed funds can be deposited into that account and then managed by the applicant
- A report on outcomes will be submitted within three months of completion (available here)
- A separate finance acquittal report will be submitted upon completion
- Unused funds will be returned to the GI

 ALL APPLICATIONS ARE TO BE SUBMITTED ONLINE

<http://genderinstitute.anu.edu.au/form/grant-application-submission>

Documents must include:

1. This application form - signed by the Director/Supervisor/Dean of the relevant ANU College /Division and then scanned prior to being uploaded as a PDF document.
2. Application details including full project description, (in accordance with the assessment criteria outlined in the guidelines document), budget and budget justification. This should be uploaded as a single document in MSWord (doc/docx) or PDF format.