Good Conversations

Forced marriage, slavery and family violence

Thursday 7 June 2018,

5:30-7:30pm

Melbourne Town Hall (Swanston Hall)

90-130 Swanston Street, Melbourne

The #GoodConversations event series shines a light on social policies that disadvantage women and their children. Good Shepherd brings together policy experts, sector colleagues and passionate members of the public to exchange information, discuss policy and build networks.

Emeritus Professor Gillian Triggs
Keynote speaker

Join human rights champion Emeritus Professor Gillian Triggs and other leaders in policy and practice as we explore the link between forced marriage, slavery and family violence.

The evening will begin with a keynote presentation by Gillian Triggs followed by a panel discussion chaired by Jenny Stanger.

Light refreshments will be served from 5:30pm. The keynote presentation will start promptly at 6:15pm.
