

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 2021 — #IWD —

Women in leadership - achieving an equal future in a COVID-19 world - 4 March 2021

International Women's Day is recognised on 8 March. In the lead up to this day, we invite you to join us on Thursday 4 March for an art exhibition and panel discussion to celebrate the amazing and inspiring women in our ANU College of Health and Medicine.

Art exhibition - Imperfect Bodies of Research

A collection of artwork from female-identifying academics as part of an interdisciplinary workshop series. The workshop is a collaboration of Dr Lillian Smyth, A/Prof Krisztina Valter-Kocsi, and A/Prof Alexandra Webb from the ANU Medical School, and visual art lead Ms Elisa Crossing. Workshop funded by the ANU Gender Institute.

Click to register

Location: Lawns of the Law Building

Exhibition open: 11.30am-1.30pm

Panel discussion: 12.00-1.00pm

BYO: Lunch

Artist: Jean Du - Imperfect Bodies of Research

Speakers:

- Professor Lyndall Strazdins – Director, CHM Research School of Population Health
- Professor Tracy Smart – Public Health Lead for the ANU COVID Response Office
- Azure Hermes – Deputy Director, National Centre for Indigenous Genomics, John Curtin School of Medical Research
- Rose Clifford – PhD Researcher and mental health advocate, CHM Research School of Psychology
- Dr Lillian Smyth – Senior Lecturer and Educational Psychology Researcher, ANU Medical School