

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Tilley Devine's Cafe and The Powder Room presents Robyn Archer

Release Date: 27th November 2013

On Tuesday 10th of December at 7pm, Robyn Archer will be hosted at Tilley's Café in Lynnheman as part of roving speaker series 'The Powder Room.' Robyn will be speaking about: The 'Daughters' of Lady Denman: contributions by women to the Centenary of Canberra celebrations.

Robyn Archer is one of Canberra's most beloved entertainers, prolific as a writer, director and singer. This year she has offered Canberra a truly incredible year of celebration in her role as the Creative Director of the Centenary of Canberra.

This year's centenary celebrations have not been without controversy. The program has showcased music, art and local personalities that have captured the imagination of Canberra and the nation.

The Powder Room is a symposium event that offers a platform for women to speak about their experience and bring their stories to the forefront of conversation.

Robyn will be the final notable woman in the 2013 Powder Room series. She will be joining an alumnus of impressive women including; academic and international law expert Hilary Charlesworth, film director Sophia Turkeiwicz and womens' rights activist Melanie Poole.

All donations from the event will go towards the charity Dollars for Dili, an organization specially nominated by Robyn Archer.

The event has been made possible by the generosity of Tilly's Devine Café. An institution that has a proud history of creating space for women to come together and express themselves.

Event Details

Robyn Archer: The 'Daughters' of Lady Denman: contributions by women to the Centenary of Canberra celebrations

7pm December 10th 2013

<https://www.facebook.com/events/240488479446843/>

Tilley's Devine Café, Corner of Brigalow Street and Wattle Street, Lynneham

<http://www.tilleys.com.au>

Contact Details

Emma Eriksen

0423766966

e.g.eriksen@gmail.com