Sex Ed

@ The Polo

Better than Politics in the Pub! Join us for Sex in the Polish Club!

What is going on for teens today?
Where do they learn about sex and what do they want from relationships... or is that a hook-up... or a hang out?

Even though the Internet has replaced Dolly Doctor, the conversations we have with our teens are still crucial to a positive attitude to sex and relationships.

This is a night of conversation starters on:

- healthy teens
- respectful relationships
- brave bystanders
- active schools
- strong community

The conversations we have as parents and carers with our teens can also be a catalyst for culture change in schools and the community.
