SHE LEADS LAUNCH EVENT

for women leaders

The YWCA of Canberra is pleased to invite you to the launch of the 2014 She Leads program on 27 March 2014.

She Leads is an innovative and evidence-based women's leadership program, comprised of a Diploma of Management, and an annual conference.

The YWCA of Canberra believes that leadership should be transformational and intergenerational. This year, we have drawn on our networks to provide a program featuring outstanding women leaders to inspire, motivate, and challenge participants.

Come along to the launch event and hear award-winning journalist Sophie McNeill speak about her incredible leadership journey.

Executive Director of the YWCA of Canberra, Frances Crimmins will share highlights from the 2013 She Leads program.

Member for Canberra, Gai Brodtmann will provide insights into the importance of investing in women's leadership, and officially launch the 2014 She Leads program.
