Wednesday 17 March 2021

In conversation with Amanda Gorely

WomenWise™ is pleased to have Ms Amanda Gorely, Australia's inaugural Ambassador for Arms Control and Counter-Proliferation, as our guest speaker on Career Planning at our first session for 2021.

Amanda leads Australia's international advocacy on global arms control, non-proliferation and disarmament. She is a senior career officer with Australia's Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade and is currently First Assistant Secretary, International Security Division.

Amanda most recently served as the Australian Ambassador to the Philippines. Previously she served as Deputy High Commissioner to New Zealand and Deputy Permanent Representative to the United Nations in Geneva, with earlier postings to Sweden and Denmark. In Canberra, Ms Gorely has worked as Corporate Counsel; Assistant Secretary, WTO Trade Law Branch and Director, International Law Section.

We are delighted Amanda will join us to share insights gained during her diverse roles.

How did she go about building such an impressive career and what's her advice for those of us considering future career options? Come along and you'll find out
