

Report to Gender Institute - Visiting Professor Linda Martín Alcoff

With the support of the Gender Institute, the Department of Gender, Media, and Cultural Studies, School of Culture, History & Language, CAP, was able to bring Professor Linda Martín Alcoff to the ANU in September 2015 to present a public lecture on Global echoes of rape and resistance and to hold a master class for post-graduate students on The future of whiteness. Approximately 40 people attended the public lecture.

The masterclass attracted twenty participants from across ANU Colleges and beyond. This was notable on two counts. Firstly, the cross campus interest was generated because of the University-wide reach of the Gender Institute. Secondly, twenty is an unusually high number of participants for a masterclass, and reflected a cross University interest that was not otherwise being addressed by any college or school. In addition participants expressed a wish for Pr. Alcoff to return in 2016 to present a longer seminar.
