

Thursday 13 October

Ending Violence Against Women: Australia and the Region jointly hosted by the Department of Foreign Affairs and the ANU Gender Institute, Australian National University Roland Wilson Conference Centre (1.02), 120 McCoy Circuit, Action

Welcome Addresses (Gender Institute/DFAT)

The Evidence

- 09:00 Marion Esler - Overview of Australia's domestic violence evidence (Department of Social Services)
Henriette Jansen – Violence against women in the Asia and Pacific region (UNFPA)
Deb Loxton – Violence against women in Australia (Australian Longitudinal Study of Women's Health)
Janet Hunt – Violence against women and the Individual Deprivation Measure (ANU)

10:45 Morning Tea

Responses

- Corinne Tarnawsky - Pacific Women Shaping Pacific Development (DFAT)
11:15 Ingrid FitzGerald – Ending violence against women in the Asia Pacific region (UNFPA)
Jenny Munro – Violence against women in West Papua (ANU)
Kamalini Lokuge – Effective services for survivors - learning from practice.
(ANU/FemiliPNG)

12:45 Lunch

Prevention

- Kathy Taylor - Partners for Prevention (UNDP)
13:45 Anna-Karin Jatfors – Prevention interventions in the Asia Pacific Region (UN Women)
Lara Fergus – Prevention in Australia (OurWatch)

15:15 Afternoon Tea

Co-ordination and Advocacy

- Melissa Alvarado – Advocacy in the Asia Pacific region (UN Women)
15:30 Damian Kingsbury – Community Based Research in Timor-Leste (Deakin University)
David Matthews – Coordinating responses in the ACT (Interim Coordinator for Family Safety, ACT)

16:45 Rapporteur Summary – Margaret Jolly, ANU Gender Institute

17:00 Close